Programme Introduction

Organisations often face challenges that cannot be solved by using the same old methods. Creative thinking helps individuals explore new ideas, while innovative decision-making ensures practical solutions are applied effectively. This programme is designed to guide participants in using creative tools, solving workplace problems, and making better decisions that strengthen organisational performance and resilience.

Objectives

- ✓ Think beyond conventional solutions and explore new ideas.
- ✓ Use creative tools to solve problems effectively at the workplace.
- ✓ Make innovative and well informed decisions that support organisational growth and resilience.
